"The Anger In Disguise"

The mask in which we wear, our daily sacrifice--the mask you hide behind, the anger in disguise--trapped within this world, no Where to run--no where to hide, a prisoner in my own mind--all concept of time is lost, walls of deception-- battle lines have Been drawn--the anger in you is the anger in me--a lifetime of wounds, you still can't see--endless wars now prevail, as you lose Direction--of what is right and wrong--trapped within this world, no where to run--no where to hide, a prisoner in my own Mind--the ashes of time before me, it tears from inside-- swallow your pride, it tears from inside--inside-- trapped within this World, no where to run--no where to hide, a prisoner within my own mind--the anger in you is the anger in me--a lifetime of Wounds, you still can't see--the ashes of time before me, it tears from inside--swallow your pride, it tears from inside--inside.
