I know I'm not normal, thoughts of ghastly mutilations.
Recurring dreams of unspeakable atrocities.
Envisioning the pleasure of when these dreams become reality.
Multiple murders, unbearable strangling.
Laughing as I watch them gasping for air.
Viciously choking once they were unconscious.
Stabbing continuously in the back, several times in the neck.
Revived half dead, horribly passing away, losing blood rapidly, left behind to die...

These bloody hands eagerly choking to unconsciousness.
Sometimes snapping their necks, dying in these bloody hands.
Bizarre lifestyle of gruesome crimes, living dreams of horror.
Squeezing their fucking throats, loss of air. Victims
gagging, vomiting.
Awakened to die. Living dreams of pleasure.
I know I'm not normal.
Numerous bodies abducted then murdered.
No longer dreaming.
