Title : [Big Brother]

Seven times i told you seven times in one day there must be something now we can do about it so is it maybe, is it can be or never in the summertime, you're hard to find you had a little something that you wanted to tell me about i'll be around, i'm available anytime never together, it will never get better in the summertime, you're hard to find

Ref:

Everyone should grow up with a big brother everyone should grow with a real dad it can only get better
all we gotta do is stick together

Seven times i told you but ten times if will take i'm like a hurricane forgive me my mistakes ohoh no, i've got no reference i'm not holding the key guess i just want someone to feel sorry for me and when you travel around and you talk to people i'm disappearing in a hole in the ground i hear they call you call the girl who knows everything listen to them then, forget about me

Ref:

When you did say something, i heard nothing that was on your mind, there was no one listening you gave up trying, cos i was rejecting never look you in the eye, never connecting

Ref:

everyone should grow with a real dad
