"Heart Heavy"

When I see lovers in the park
Making a start
Making their little love spark
I don't get heart heavy
Heart heavy
Heart heavy

When I see lovers in the rain
Under the same umbrella
In a picture frame
I don't get heart heavy
Heart heavy
Heart heavy

'Cause there's a man and a woman next door
And they don't make no love they just go to war
Oh-ee
Yeah yeah

When I see lovers on the street
With their hands in their hands
And a synched heartbeat
I don't wish that were me
That were me
That were me

When I see two young pops
Sitting in a malt shop
Drinking out of one cup
With two straws and one lung
I don't get thirsty
Get thirsty
Not getting thirsty

'Cause there's a man and a woman next door
And they don't make no love they just go to war
Oh-ee

And there's a man and a woman outside
And they don't breathe the air
They're just breathing fire

And a man and a woman upstairs
And he just pulls his teeth
While she pulls her hair

And it's the love inside the treasury tape
And I know I don't wanna make the same mistake
As the man and the woman next door
'Cause they don't make no love they just go to war
Oh-ee

Don't sink
Not heavy
Don't sink because my heart's not heavy
Don't sink
Not heavy

(Instrumental)
