You give me a lemon
I make lemonade
I'm used to break
All the promises I make
I try to be humble though
Don't want to be left alone
In the darkness
With my nightmares
It's not easy
To always be right
Might as well be
A little bit crazy
Here's to you, my lovely
Here's to you, stay crazy
Here's to you my lovely
Cheers to you
And the sound of the waves
Under the night sky
Oblivious city
Odious universe
Couldn't be more happy
Anywhere else
Fill my cup to the rim
'cos we should be drinking
To all God's lost
Children
We would be fools
If we stuck to the rules
Might as well be
Totally crazy
