Morten Abel - Surfer Girl

I asked you where you want to spend the weekend
No I don't believe you're going to Mars
On the beach under the open sky we'll sleep and
We treasure every moment in our hearts
I asked you where you want to spend summer
No I don't believe you're going away
On the beach just like every other
Summer holiday
And I asked you where you wanna be in winter time
Remember how the water froze
Going to Miami is far out of reach
So I'll be looking for you on the beach

Salt as the tears you cry
The waves are houses tall
I know what it means to you
I know what it means to you
I know what it means to you

I asked you where you wanna be in six years time
Sooner or later you'll decide
I'll come and see you in the middle of the night
And I'll find you on the beach with my flashlight
I asked you where you wanna be next year
When school is over and a new life is beginning
I already know the answer
You'll be surfing, surfing, surfing on the beat

Salt as the tears you cry
The waves are houses tall
I know what it means to you
I know what it means to you
The waves are houses tall
The waves are houses tall
