Morten Abel - The Whistler

The whistle over continent
The whistle over hills away
The whistle over acres and the green hills so far away
The whistle over river and the trees when the autumn leaves
The whistle of the car on the highway must be the police

Some people just don't know how to drive
Some people just don't know how to drive
Out to see a single heart
How do you know it is in realtime
It's easy enough to load-down

We are better off together
We are better off together
Cos you never know what's a comin' round the bend
You never know what's a comin' round the bend

The whisper of the wind
Fill the sails it's a tropical night
A mental rocket astronaut
Is heading for the stars in the sky
The whisper of the jet plane
And the rain symphony
The whisper of the killer on the run
Might be looking for me

Some people just know how to survive
Some people just know how to survive

Tomorrow'll be a better day
Yeah, tomorrow'll be a good day
Tomorrow'll be a great day

We are better off together
We are better off together
Cos you never know what's a comin' round the bend
You never know what's a comin' round the bend

Some people just don't know how to drive
Some people just don't know how to drive
Out to see a single heart
How do you know it is in realtime
It's easy enough to load-down

We are better off together
We are better off together
Cos you never know what's a comin' round the bend
You never know what's a comin' round the bend

It's the future of yours that I'm talking about
It's the future of mine that I'm talking about
It's the future of yours that I'm talking about
It's the future of mine that I'm talking about
