I have always been the type to think before I speak
I have always been the type to look before I leap And like a bolt out of the blue I was struck and there was you
For a moment I believed that I could let go

You lift me up into the sky
Felt like I could fly never gonna die
n' I almost made it but not quite Now you're flying out of sight
and you know I can't come with you I'll always be scared of heights always be scared of heights

I didn't think I'd meet someone who'd make me change my ways
Never thought I'd find someone who'd brighten up my days Someone who made me forget my hands were tied my wings were clipped Someone who made me believe that I could let go

You lift me up into the sky
I felt like I could fly I was never gonna die
n' I almost made it but not quite you're flying out of sight
and you know I can't come with you
'cause I'll always be scared of heights scared of heights

Wish I never knew how great it feels up in the air Wish I never got to feel the wind blow through my hair Well, in my dreams you'll always be flying high along with me and in my dreams I'll always feel that I can let go

You lift me up into the sky
I feel like I can fly

I'm never gonna die
N' I almost made it but not quite
now you're flying out of sight
and now I can't come with you
'cause I'll always be scared of heights
