Think about
Walking out
Leaving the familiar
Eager now to try something new
By yourself
No-one else
These are your decisions
I won't try to change your view

But tell me now my love
Are you undecided
Now you're on your own my love - my love
Does it feel alright
Are you undecided
Undecided

Hit the road
Open up
Feel the wind caress you
Thinking to yourself - where to?
Such is life
Full of change
Chances that may never
Come again my love - so true

But tell me now my love
Are you undecided
Now you're on your own my love - my love
Does it feel alright
Or are you undecided
Undecided

Tell me now my love
Are you undecided
Now you're on your own my love - my love
Does it feel alright
Tell me
Are you undecided
Undecided
