I sold my soul
to be near you
I'm torn apart inside
When will you see that you are the one for me?
Don't you see that I care?
I will go through heaven and hell just so I can feel your skin next to mine

Is my love for you eternal?
Or can it only die with you?

In the silence of the endless night,

never again feel the quest of the light

I won't let you turn your back on me Don't want to be ignored by you at all I can't take it any longer you must be punished for these games you play
I am the one, the one and only
I am your punisher

My pain will end with you tonight
