"The Search For You"

Visit "The Search For You" on MotoLyrics.com

Struggling against the wind,, walking through deep snow

Fighting against the time that soon has run out As days become years, I am still searching for you si that I can get a clue to where I can find you

Nor thunder, lightning or rain can stop me from finding you

Not even the hardest ways can stop me from finding
you

Eternity has passed but I haven't forgotten what happened between us, between you and me
When I finally find you I will tear your soul apart For I have pledged my life to revenge myself on you

Therefor you must die
Therefor you must die
