Time
Time
And you didn't come back to me
I really thought that you would've been here
By now

But I'm not tired of waiting
And I'm not tired of praying
I am not tired of singing and saying your name
Out loud

You flew away
You flew away
Time
Time
And you didn't come back to me

My heart, it was broke

I thought you were joking
My heart, it was broke
I thought you were joking

I was sure that you would be back
Oh so sure that you would be back

But I'm not tired of waiting
And I'm not tired of praying
I am not tired of singing and saying your name
Out loud

You flew away
You flew away
