All of the things that your keeping inside
Pushing me pushing you out I died
Do you belong here?
Without those cloths dear?
IÂ'm in the coffin you calling me back
I canÂ't confess so you hold my hand
IÂ've got the secrets
So many secrets

I put it on when I feel like I should
I canÂ't believe that the sex was so good
You said you were there, but I donÂ't believe her
No one will love you if you are alone
I had the shakes so I hung up the phone
I kept talking, about the same thing

If thereÂ's a ghost let it sing
Let it find you
Because I donÂ't move
If you move, when it involves two

No no no no, I didnÂ't realize you were gone

All of the muscles they need to relax
Let that doctor work his magic
Can I sleep here?
In the arm chair

I want to keep you from walking away
She says sheÂ's terrified of this place
I want to tell her
That it gets better

If thereÂ's a ghost let it let it sing
Let it find you
Because I donÂ't move
If you move, when it involves two

No no no no, I didnÂ't realize you were gone
Oh no, oh no, it took so long to be back here
In your arms
Oh no no no, will ever come back down

From your mind
Call me lover
It's enough to, be there, and get by, in this life

All of the town is calling your name
All of the town is calling out your name
You didn't listen
Or maybe you heard them

I have control of those chemical lips
I will kiss you with them
Because I have the secrets
So many secrets

Ohh no no no, will you always love me like you do right now?
Oh I hope so then I wont be sorry that I let it out

All of the things that you keeping inside
Calling you calling me back its alright
To go back there
No im not scared
You know ill leave you
If you let me in
Battling things that the lips stop kissing
Over and Over
It's never enough
