I want to follow you home
If you are walking alone in my neighborhood Oh no IÂ'm not insecure Two stops to the methadone clinic is all IÂ'm really asking for
But that system is flawed
We can do terrible terrible things
If you believe and I keep believing That the system is flawed Well we already have

Where were you when I was young?
When I could still fall in love with anyone Oh no and IÂ'm not really sure Two stops to the methadone clinic is all I am really asking for
That the system is flawed
We already have

IÂ'm not new to this thingÂ's leaking
We canÂ't sleep and we canÂ't eat yet
And everyone around me is walking so fast I canÂ't
keep up
A little bit of me is gonna leave you so I have to beat this
And that little thing comes so close that we wont ever be friends
(I wanted to occupy, everyone, but not anyone)
(I occupied anyone who came close, take me home,
from the cold,

from the coast, take me home)

Every time I assume sheÂ's messing around Every time I look she has her eyes closed SheÂ's a tap tap woman gonna by my time SheÂ's a tap tap woman gonna keep me awake at night

IÂ'm not new to this thingÂ's leaking
We canÂ't sleep and we cant eat yet
And everyone around me is walking so fast I canÂ't
keep up

be friends
(I wanted to occupy, everyone, but not anyone)
(I occupied anyone who came close, take me home,
from the cold,
from the coast, take me home)
(ill wait for you, a little while, you let me in, I let it die) (Some where is a town where the roads are paved violets and people sleep thousands years of their sadness)
