Wear that dress
Put your make-up on
Its so cold
Wear something warm

Your daddy was in Vietnam
Your mother worked at the church
Your sisters still in jail
For stealing somebody's purse

If you're not scared
Can we dance?
Because I can't move
Without your hands
Guiding me across the sea of cars
We really need more

I feel cold
Hands on silk
Jesus Christ
Feels so real

Your daddy was in Vietnam
Your mother worked at the church
Your sisters still in jail
For stealing somebody's purse

If I die today
Will you always be my friend?
Because if I never died
I would always be your man
It gets so close
But no one lets in

Burning neighborhoods
Empty parking lots
Hotel in the back
Near the forest
Common let me in
Let it all begin
Common lift me up
Common wake up

Because
I wont let you down
I wont let you down
I wont let you down
I wont let you down
