Yes I do care what you have to say
But I'm sure I'm having a very bad day
I'm tired of being sick and I'm sick of being tired

Once a long time ago
I caught a glimpse of you alone
I see sound
I see sound
I see sound

I was so very scared
But now I've learned
A new way to care

I see sound
I see sound
From all around
I see sound
From all raound
From all around
From all around

What would you do
If suddenly you turned around
And everything was no longer what you had planned
And all the faces were not friendly
And everything you thought you'd be
Might be a mistake from when you started
You'd change it if you could
You'd know you would but there is no one else to be

She climbed on the fire escape
Said, "What are you doing
You know it's late
People told me you were back
But I'm kinda wonderin'
Why is that?"

Once a long time ago
I caught a glimpse of you alone
And I was so very scared
I took the thoughts and stripped them bare

I see sound
I see sound
From all around
I see sound
From all around
From all around
From all around

I see sound
I see sound
From all around
I see sound
From all around
From all around
From all around
I see sound
I see sound
I see sound
I see sound
