I thought my life was completely alright
As the hourglass grains keep on falling every night
But there you are neglecting my true identity
Leaving me in shame with the people that you really care

Chorus:

I want you to see that it's just me
Your expectations waking up my rebellion
I know you care but I can't even see myself in me
I want you to know that it's just me!!!!

I feel so helpless those days that I'm with you
I feel so useless all those time that we've been through It's hard for me to let you go but I'm sick and tired of you
You said I might gonna go to hell but I think I'm already there

Chorus:

I want you to see that it's just me
Your expectations waking up my rebellion
I know you care but I can't even see myself in me
I want you to know that it's just me!!!!

Adlib

Chorus:

I want you to see that it's just me
Your expectations waking up my rebellion
I know you care but I can't even see myself in me
I want you to know that it's just me!
