You are nothing like the others You've got two feet to stand on I have two feet for walking but that is not the question

I can't picture you a mother going crazy for the children going crazy of the children always the children

Lay down on the ice
regard the protein sky
do what you early on learned to do put your lips to the straw and draw

You were spied on from the pick-up kneeling in the Castaway lot your fists were shaking in the air 'everything is gonna be alright' you were sayin

If you're nothing like I remember and I kill you when we meet bear in mind that I was only joking about your mother and your feet

Lay down on the ice
regard the protein sky
put your lips to the straw and draw
