

Mother Hips "Run Around Me"

When I was a pale and skinny young kind
it didn't make me try but try to keep myself hid,
and no one seemed to see me.
They all ran to the boys with the boards by the shore
with the tan
and the good teeth unlinke me, unlike me.

The beach was wide and the sand was hot,
I'm a little bit nervous about the trunks my mom
bought,
the girls in the bikinis.
They all ran to the boys with the boards by the shore
with the tan
and good teeth unlike me
So I cross my arms around myself and pretend like I don't care
They can run around me...

Now that I'm tall and I've got a girl
I like her pretty much and for a while I still will.
She looks good in a bikini.
And the boys run by trying to sweat off their guts
and I don't have to worry when they stare at her butt..

I wrap my arms around her and the boys don't even dare..
They can run around me...
