This hotel will not be standing for too much longer the proprietress is a bitch, I do believe but what I got, she wants that makes her green green green maybe I'll make a friend before I leave well I woke up with one nasty case of sunshine and someone else's lock is around my key can't you read the sign that hangs on my doorknob?

It says, "do not disturb No Moleste, Please."

well the highway is like a river it's always movin' on if I could just keep swimmin' the river would take me home and I just wish I was home have you ever had that Grand Junction sit down two river blues

so if you ever leave your home down in your green valley make sure you take lots of what you need you might get back to find they're gone and your friends just say "I don't know what happened" you don't have to but I suggest that you believe
