"You sleep to dream cause I am your nightmare!
Wake up and scream cause this is warfare!
I like to play these little games.
I'll take your innocence, shot down in flames!

You think you've got me figured out
You bit off more than you could chew!

Whatever you heard about me
Everything you hear be true
Whatever you think about me
Your mind is playing tricks on you
You know I'm a liar baby, and that's the truth
And the one thing that is true is
I can always count on lyin' to you

You're a saint and I'm a sinner
Are you experienced or a beginner
Your virgin ears, I'll tell them lies
Think you can trust me in this disguise

You think you've got me figured out
You bit off more than you could chew
You're fooled by perfect alibis
And you keep thinking that it's true

Whatever you heard about me
Everything you hear be true
Whatever you think about me
Your mind is playing tricks on you
You know I'm a liar baby, and that's the truth
And the one thing that is true is
I can always count on lyin' to you

Tell me that you want it, that you need it, gotta have it
Gotta have it, if you need it, if you wanna get it on

Tell me that you want it, that you need it, gotta have it
Gotta have it, if you need it, if you wanna get it on

Tell me that you want it, that you need it, gotta have it
Gotta have it, if you need it, if you wanna get it on

Whatever you heard about me
Everything you hear be true
Whatever you think about me
Your mind is playing tricks on you
You know I'm a liar baby, and that's the truth
And the one thing that is true is
I can always count on lyin' to you

Whatever you heard about me
Everything you hear be true
Whatever you think about me
Your mind is playing tricks on you
You know I'm a liar baby, and that's the truth
And the one thing that is true is
I can always count on lyin' to you"
