"She Needs Rock N Roll"

A preacher's daughter with a devil tattoo
Mama's little good girl sniffin' that glue
Her box started buzzing ever since she heard the Crue
White trash mannequin workin' on a scheme
Livin' on adrenaline daddy can't redeem

She turned up the radio
And headed to the show

She needs rock n roll
(She's begging please)
She needs rock n roll
You know she's an underage angel with a dented halo

She needs rock n roll
Show small town girl was a trailer park queen
Headin' to the city with her starry-eyed dreams
Fistful of pills and a fashion magazine

She turns up the radio
And heads to the show
