Starting to get my head in your space
Starting to lose track of the weekday
Starting to cook my brain in 5 ways
I'm trying to be cool
Starting to lose my inhibition
I'm starting to make some bad decisions
I'm listening to all your crap opinions
Trying to be cool

Don't take me over
Just take me there

But I've been... I've gone as far as I could go
And now feelings starting to take hold
But I'll death defy to make you cry
Find out what you know
Could you please death defy with me too

Starting to tune into your station
I'm starting to lose my obligation
I'm talking in tongues, a celebration
I'm trying to be cool
Starting to get my head in your space
Starting to lose track of the weekday
Starting to cook my brain in 5 ways
I'm trying to be cool

Don't take me over
Just take me there

But I've been... I've gone as far as I could go
And now feelings starting to take hold
But I'll death defy to make you cry
Find out what you know
Would you please death defy with me too...
