asking no more questions wasting no more time captured by your static lok you're in my mind

caught between the letters and words you'll never feel run to get a better look the distance kills

when you go
by the road
i'll be standing here all alone but it feels much better when the highs you stayed for are gone but the time's a friend when it's over chase the sunshine feel when it's cold don't you run, don't fear it take it on don't cry when the feeling's gone asking no more of you taking no more time gave you all that's left of me

drawn but not regretting got to get away take me to the place i dreamed at yesterday
