Have you ever had the feeling
That there's more to life than what it seems
And have you longed for substance
Hungry for the truth and all that's real
I'm sending out a message to you

Calling lost angels to save the world
Cause there's nothing more powerful
Than a pretty girl calling lost angels
To join as one
Cause it's gonna take a miracle to get the job done

When we learn to see each other
As a family we will begin to heal the hurt and sorrow
Love is all that matters in the end
I'm sending out an SOS

Calling lost angels to save the world
Cause there's nothing more powerful
Than a pretty girl calling lost angels
To join as one
Cause it's gonna take a miracle to get the job done

The silence won't bury u
I'll be here
I'll stay forever
Follow the light in you
Let's stand up and sing together

Calling lost angels to save the world
Cause there's nothing more powerful
Than a pretty girl calling lost angels
To join as one
Cause it's gonna take a miracle to get the job done

Calling lost angels to save the world
Cause there's nothing more powerful
Than a pretty girl calling lost angels
To join as one
Cause it's gonna take a miracle to get the job done
