(Ft Amiel)

I've been hurt, I've been lost and left before
Still always I've searched for something more
Now you know that you can count on me
'cause you've proved that you are all I need

And I know that they can not hurt me now
Yeah I know that they can not touch me now

Music makes me fly higher and higher
It drives me on, the heat under my skin
Music you're my brother, sister, lover
You complete me from without and from within

I've been cruel, I've hurt and left before
Looking back I only wanted more
You were there right from the very start
It was you, the one to win my heart

And I know that they can not hurt me now
Yeah I know that they can not touch me now

Music makes me fly higher and higher
It drives me on, the heat under my skin
Music you're my brother, sister, lover
You complete me from without and from within

Music makes me fly,
Music makes me fly ... Fly so high ... (Repeatx3)

Music makes me fly higher and higher
It drives me on, the heat under my skin
Music you're my brother, sister, lover
You complete me from without and from within
You complete me from without and from within
You complete me from without and from within

Do it to me again and again...
Where I end, where I begin...
Wont you do it to me again and again
