(Oh) And overnight, you take away the weeping
Wake me from my sleeping
And I greet the morning light
And overwhelmed, I turn my face to see you
Once again, I'm free to live my glorietta life

The sun rises on me in the morning
Without regard
To emotion
If I cried myself to sleep,
Is it swollen eyes that cause me not to see?

And overnight, you take away the weeping
Wake me from my sleeping
And I greet the morning light
And overwhelmed, I turn my face to see you
Once again, I'm free to live my glorietta life

What if, if I cry myself to sleep tonight,
Separate from you?
Will you still beckon in the morning
Every morning, every morning?
(I...)I won't be separate from you
(Won't...)I won't be separate from you
(You...)I won't be separate from you
(Won't...) I won't be separate from you

And overnight, you take away the weeping
Wake me from my sleeping
And I greet the morning light
And overwhelmed, I turn my face to see you
Once again, I'm free to live my glorietta life

And overnight, you take away the weeping
Wake me from my sleeping
And I greet the morning light
(I...)I won't be separate from you
(Won't...)I won't be separate from you
(You...)I won't be separate from you
(Won't...) I won't be separate from you
