Mouthwash We Evolve Lyrics

this is for the heartbroke this is for the poor this is for the ??? to see what's in store if you ever had a feeling thing aren't going your way don't you worry don't you worry no picture yourself in a room with the sun shining though exposing the smoke inside picture yourself in a place with a smile on your face you'll never have to change your mind again i'll bet you thought those kind of days were over you hear a plain fly by and you wounder where it's going to so when you're finished trying to live from memories there's always the future one day you'll look back and be glad that you carried on

cause we evolve
if you're sinking in quicksand let me try to grab your hand
cause we evolve
try to understand that you don't live up to demands
cause we evolve
no i really don't care when you people start to stare yeah we evolve

so you haven't had your fair shair of oppportunity but sitting in that same chair, that ain't your destiny (you demoted friendship) ??? you need a remedy and i know how to get there it's in a melody i'm looking at the side of a train through the dirt and the rain at the frost on the coldest days one day you'll see these places you know and see how they go when you're drenched in the summers rain

you hear a plain fly by and you wonder where it's going to
so when you're finished trying to live from memories
one day you'll look back and be glad that you carried
on
