What if I was the one to leave your sorry ass behind?

What if all these tears that are falling were yours instead of mine?

What if I was proof a fool grows wiser by the minute?

What if I knew you were making your bed and just who was lying in it?

Hope it felt good to say you love her

Hope it felt good to do me wrong

Hope it felt good to be with another

Hope it felt good

What if I just wiped the floor with your love without even blinking?

What if the thread you were hanging on had you strung out on wishful thinking?

I've become clearer since I came out from under the wrong impression

I've been stuck on the detour

Headed in the wrong direction

Hope it felt good to say you love her

Hope it felt good to do me wrong

Hope it felt good to be with another

Hope it felt good
