No, no, no
No, no, no, not because of you.
Aahhahh...
Aahhahh...

Because of you I would've done anything you want me to.

Now I stop saying that I'm calling you,
I hung up the phone, not because of you.

Girl: (sigh) Answer the phone.

Boy: Hello.

Girl: What's up?

Lately, I've been thinking maybe
On a scale of one to ten
I rather be your number one, hold up
So when you tell me we're just friends
Don't expect me to pretend
Every now and then you love me like the other ten
And if you love me it don't show
And if you don't then me go
I'm not the girl who cries myself to sleep
At night, ooo... no, no, no, no, no

If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you
If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you

You... you... you...

You paged me and then I got so happy

You called to say you missed me
You want to be with me tonight, that's right,
But when you saw me you act like we've been hanging
all the time
Like I'm this broad who don't have a life

And if you love me it don't show
And if you dont then let me go
I'm not the girl who cries myself to sleep
At night, ooo.... no, no, no, no, no, no, no o-o

If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you
If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you

You were you with when I was paging you 911
Said you didn't get it but I saw it when you got home
Why, why, why, why
Must you play these games with me
But maybe if I walked away
We'll hook up another day
I'll still be happy

When I can't eat
When I can't sleep
When I can't think
It's not because of you
When I go up
When I don't call
When I move on
It's not because of you
When I fall in love
With someone new
I'm better off without you, yeah
When you hear I'm at home getting over you
I'm just up in my room calling someone other than you

If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you

I'm just in my room calling someone other than you
If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you

If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you
If I can't eat
It's not because of you
If I can't sleep
It's not because of you
You heard I'm at home getting over you
I'm just in my room calling someone other than you
