On the rare occassion that I see you smile
I go blind
Like staring at the sun with unshaded eyes
Not advised
But for the sake of a few sweet moments with you
I don't mind

Oo-oo clear blue skies
So rare these days
I'm gonna burn away
This sad wintry haze
And buy us both a cheap pair of shades
We're gonna fall in love
I'll steal you away

Now the summer's come
I'm gonna steal you away
Yeah, now the summers come

On morning grass I watch you watch friends sway
As they come down to the sounds of the songs that I play

Yeah-ah clear blue skies
So rare these days
I'm gonna burn away
This sad wintry haze
And buy us both a cheap pair of shades
We're gonna fall in love
I'll steal you away

Now the summer's come
I'm gonna steal you away
Yeah, now the summers come
