Tears, from saying goodbye.
Tears, I'm sorry but I have made up my mind.
I'm leaving to find a new life, a new love.

All I can tell you is never.
All I can give you are tears...

Tears, fall down from my eyes.
Tears, a man never cries.
He should hold them back.
Hide them so no one could see the real me...

All I can tell you is never.
All I can give you are tears.

When did the love run out,
I might be going out of my head.
But instead...

I've made up my mind,
I'm leaving to find a new life, a new love...

All I can tell you is never.
All I can give you are tears...
All I can give you are tears...
Fall down from my eyes, tears...

oooohoow...
