Bonus round

This is hot tin roof stepper hold it down with centipede foundation

Mr. Greed he burns rugged obstructions and bunches Like little Jackie paper puffs the magic dragon and Dutches

We dont need another hero homey Gallop off on your my little one trick pony Holly hobby Polly pocket pretty fuchsia destiny If the slipper fits fire up Cinderellas propeller and curtsy for the Munchkins

Right before Aesop rock smash the pumpkin Iron on gusto rust only on blood stream Whats better?
When the wrest slit it leaks out only the bloodiest bubble letters

Complete without lines fill-ins date shading and shout-out columns

For vagrant colonies to follow in redeeming bottles

Youre a little tea pot

Tryin to eavesdrop

On mammoth route

Peekin out from the rose bush like here is my handle here is my spout

Godzilla jukie

Used to be in love now out for giga-pussy Sorry to offend but sometimes life bends in the middle So now you got a fulcrum where there used to be a pillar

And now I got pulse that bumps less than a cocaine binger

And now I got no 9 to 5 and still Labor Days flicker

And now I got a 9 millimeter cue tip with an itchy trigger finger

See I dont really feel your persona distortion

Ordered by martyrs who martyr self for martyr sake Wow fame if notoriety grew adjacent to jealous dick writing sediments

Id give you a pound like greetings Mr. President

(Now go do your homework)
