Time is all i fear
Its why i just keep running
The quest for love was all that you an i held dear
With the beat still in your head and the good book by your bed we will survive

Someday are we gonna wake up a little bit older or are we out of time time time I know that should we ever break up or find a way to make up in the fullness of time time time

Tell me where'd you want to be when all your friends have settled down in the suburbs on the greener side of town

Time is all i fear
Its why i just keep running
The quest for love was all that you an i held dear
With the beat still in your head
and the good book by your bed

and as your old man said

Good friends well you can count them on one hand and they'll never judge you whatever your crime crime crime I know that i can include you and you'll forgive me

in the fullness of time time time

Tell me where'd you want to be
when all your friends have settled down
in the suburbs on the greener side of town

Time is all i fear
Its why i just keep running
The quest for love was all that you an i held dear
With the beat still in your head
and the good book by your bed
we will survive
you and i

Time is all i fear
Its why i just keep running
The quest for love was all that you an i held dear
With the beat still in your head
and the good book by your bed
we will survive
you and i
