

Count Raven "Within The Garden Of Mirrors"

Won't You take a ride with me today into another world we leave to stay in secret rendez-vous within Your mind tomorrow is denied and left behind "Come with me and I will show You something that You never seen before..." Look into the mirrors and You'll see things that are and why they're meant to be sugar blossoms under silver trees won't You take my hand and follow me?
Rivers made of honey floating by underneath a shiny golden sky life can be so easy, can't You see?
If You just take my hand and follow me
