Chorus: 2X's

When will I see my friends
As the time go I could never
When will I see my friends
In this time lord I need some
When will I see my friends

Mr. Serv-On:

Have you ever tried to count every raindrop Before it hit the ground probably not better yet Count every love one or friend that aint around I did Hopin that the time it took it would ease my troubles in The end all I got was to many tears an my reflection in a Puddle sometimes I just want to stand in the rain and look up
With my arms open hopin God could tell me why babies die
Why my cousin Fish keep smokin, mama told me say a prayer
And it'll ease the pain you think Mouse before he died at lease smile and said his son name I'd give anything If I could hear my Aunt Gussie curse me out Auntee if you see Randall tell him his pad holdin up and Hold me a place in his new house cause so many nights
I look at my Dun and ask myself what's the purpose it's been a Long time since I been to church is that reason enough to hurt us
They told my cousin he got HIV known he facin death he walk Around with a smile, every Sunday he praisein a thought he Still Gods child and mama lost a nephew and a sister in the same
Year and never once I saw her just lay down, give up and Shed a tear

Chorus: 2X's

Mr. Serv-On:

See Steve in North Carolina lil brother Tony had five Mouths to feed, God did Joeys killers know that before they Shot him to his knees, God please tell me I'ma I a good father
My daughter a week old and I can see it in her little eyes she Already got a troubled soul and it seem like I'm runnin my last
And final race if derall and Ken not to busy send a little Sunshine to they lonely brothers face I know everybody they die
For a reason you think my cousin Chuck with his last breath
Wanted a hit of Gin before leaven or if Momo was still liven
My family wouldn't look at each other with so much hate we'd All be speakin Shhh!! Fat rube mama never got to enjoy grandkids Homie I know it's hard when your son ask to see his their other Grandmother and where she live I go to the Cemetery and it seem Like the only place I find peace do you really believe a man
When he let out of jail he really free I think if I was a bird
I wouldn't fly away cause for some reason I think everybody I love would come back and I'd be to far to come Back to enjoy dat Day

Chorus pays through out the Outro:

Outro:

Shhh! Dear God when I'm standin alone in the dark Hmm!
It might seem like I'm a drunk or even if I'm not So what I'm sayin just talkin to you tellin you what I fell every mother that lost somebody ease they pain Please you know If I could give a part of me just to do that Then do what you got to do to take it you know all these kids
Out there without fathers you know let their father become a man
And take care of that and every mother other there that's alone
Pregnant or either on drugs or what ever ease all they problems

And the troubles in they mind you know let'em find God cause you Know I'm not the perfect one I miss church a lot Hay you know
And you know what I'm feelin you know I don't miss my prayers
You know and my moms she been through so much you know just let Her smile once and all these homies out there that's still bangin
You know you lose a homey close yo eyes put your head down and Think about it you know cause if you go out here and take Another you know somebody might come back and take yours and Then you'll be filling the same way

Chorus till fade:
