Damn this life confuses
It uses and abuses
With so many stupid games
I don't wanna play
Ok

Where do I belong?
Everywhere feels wrong
Things keep changing
It's a rearranging story
It's a mystery
How it missed me

This was my dream, my wish
And it didn't come true
So I'm taking it back
I'm takin em all back

Just wanna know I'm wanted
Just wanna know I'm needed
Just wanna know it's there
In case I ever need it

Everywhere I go
All the people blow
Trust in something
That only brings melancholy
Why should I just
Believe in trust?

Never
Never say die (I'm not giving up)

And I've been there
But you don't care
