(Music: M.Schenker / Lyrics & Melodies: K. Keeling)

I've gone through a lot for my freedom
Lost a life along the way left home everything I own as I headed to join the charade got caught up with the wild and the madness
I may have gone too far I must confess
I must confess

Got my money hid away in the gas tank
Gotta keep it steady no joke no mistake yeah I'll be telling you to hold on Strapped in my four forty Hemmy burning

[Chorus:]
Long live Fat City
Got nothin to lose
White / blue
Down the avenue
You're worth everything I know
Long live Fat City
Out blowing a fuse
Set This Town Alight

I found my way out the backstreet
Glad to be alive
A hundred more miles I'll be long gone
No more fighting or scrapes to survive
Up ahead says rest for riders
Headlights maybe red lights beware
Look into my rear view mirror they're closer than they do appear
Another minute I'll be Far away
Another second I'll be shifting gears

[Chorus]

I've paid a lot for my freedom
I never wondered why
My memory's clear and reminds me daily
It was so close but I passed them by

There was a space by the policeman
Gun shots all around over my head
They'll never arrest me man...yeah right
So I look into my rear view mirror
They're closer than they will appear
Another minute I'll be far away
Another second I'll be shifting gears
