Every day, I think about you
All the time, crazy for you.
Tell my self, again and again.
I'll be patience but then
I feel you, deep in my heart.
Sell my soul, for just one part.
Could it be, ohh ... that is there
After all you say to me
"You broke my confidence"
Took it all, what can you see
Makes no different to you see
What happens to me ?

Every day, I wake without you
One more way to think what is true
Lives goes on, what else can I do ?
You're not here, you don't need me.
You broke my confidence.
Took it all, what can you see.
Makes no different to you see.
What happen to me ?

Never brave to worry, didn't need to care.
That you really love me, You're not there

Every day when I think about you.
Like a prayer to the child is new.
In my thought, you always be.
You're the only one could make me happy
You broke my confidence.
Took it all, what can you see.
Makes no different to you see.
What happen to me ?
