"Not My Mistake"

If you can hate, then we can live behind borders
For God sake, don't put a price on this water
Alleviate, and stop making things harder
For God sake, you can lean on my shoulder

If you can pray, we might have understanding
Some other day, if we stop this pretending
You're not alone; I can see where you're landing
A broken bone, is the result on not bending

Hey, Don't walk away stop falling, looking for a friend
It's not my, not my mistake
Hey, Unlock your mind stop crawling, burning out again
It's not my (Hold Mistake)

If you walk away, cuz things got too demanding
You can't say, that your use is not worth defending
I don't know if you get what I'm saying
Don't be the one, with a start but no ending

Chorus

MUSIC & SOLO

If you can pray, we may have understanding
Some other day, if we stop this pretending
You're not alone; I can see where you're landing
A broken bone, is the result on not bending
