I've been drinking and fighting, thunder and lightning
son

I've been flirting with danger, held up in strangers' arms

But the story must be told

I won't wait till they say that I grew too old

Come on take a drink it could last all night

Fall back in the shadows of the Sunlight

By the end of this so called road I could win this fight

Put the thunder and lightning back in my life, in my life

I took too many chances, sick, drunk still up at dawn

I got dragged over fences but I got up and carried on

But the story must be told

I won't wait till they say that I grew too old

Come on take a drink it could last all night

Fall back in the shadows of the Sunlight

By the end of this so called road I could win this fight

Put the thunder and lightning back in my life, in my life

Come on take a drink it could last all night

Fall back in the shadows of the Sunlight

By the end of this so called road I could win this fight

Put the thunder and lightning back in my life, in my life

Come on take a drink it could last all night

Fall back in the shadows of the Sunlight

By the end of this so called road I could win this fight

Put the thunder and lightning back in my life, in my life

In my life

In my life

In my life

In my life

I've been drinking and fighting thunder and lightning

son
