I saw my brother sitting by the road
Philosophizing about the signs, the times and the soul
He said, "I'm thinking about the state of the world
Of wars and famines and the things that we've unfurled
'Cause everybody wants to know
The way the world is going to go"(chorus)

Skip to the end, skip to the end
Skip, skip to the end
If you want to read the story flip the pages and then
Skip to the end, skip to the end
Skip, skip to the end
You will understand how the future world's gonna go

I saw beside him lying in the grass

An ancient book that was worn and wet and tattered
I said, "My brother won't you look into this
And you will find all the answers that you miss
'Cause everybody wants to know
The way the world is going to go"(chorus)

Deep in the history of our tortured race
Are all the blunders and mistakes we can't erase
But it ain't over yet; it's gonna turn around
See for yourself how it all goes down
'Cause everybody wants to know
The way the world is going to go(chorus)
