Sinking down in down deep too,
Pink Pony Caf   is here.
Where living is seen as dreaming,
for people who want to stay.
Stranger the people dancing,
slow motion replay.
In the time that it takes to see it,
I'm back here at home again...
So I say goodbye, so I wave goodbye...

I click once, I click twice.
People collide in the, Pink Pony Caf   Where flesh can escape to the,
whatever your mind may say.
Go back to forget yourself,
there's more in us left to shine.
No monsters can come and get me,
Pink Pony Caf  .
