

Mumsdollar "I Can Tell"

Visit "I Can Tell" on MotoLyrics.com

Excuse me sir
Is that a smile I see or are you hurting bad
You act so happy all the time
It's hard to tell when you're sinking in
No one knows you like I do
So please don't tell me your lies to me
Your appearance has them fooled
Don't know you're out of control

Should have told
I oughta known
I should have told
I oughta known
Will you be here when I wake up tomorrow

Don't say it's all right
I can tell just by looking in your eyes
Something's wrong
Don't tell me things will be fine
You kid yourself and even I know
That this could be the last time I wave goodbye
