The morning light is burning bright
It fills my eyes it makes me feel alive
Its cold outside
Though it's warming fast
I'd say good morning but the moments past
It's just another day and I've seen it all before but today
I won't take it for granted any more
It's nothing new but I'm seeing clearly now from a different view

Surprise; surprise its right before my eyes
Sunrise, sunrise it makes me feel alive

If you saw this dawn this perfect sky
You'd swear never to say goodbye
It's nothing new but I'm seeing clearly now from a
different view

Surprise; surprise its right before my eyes
Sunrise, sunrise it makes me feel alive

If you saw this dawn this perfect sky
You'd swear never to say goodbye
It's nothing new but I'm seeing clearly now from a
different view

Surprise; surprise its right before my eyes
Sunrise, sunrise it makes me feel alive
