Lying in an alley in the back of my mind, i'm wonderin' if you might leave me behind, i hope you don't feel you've been used,
i've never been so in love or so confused.
You're in the east getting away and i'm in the west being lead astray, in a dirty old bar i'm getting boozed,
i've never been so in love or so confused.
So in love, so in love and so confused
An offer's been made, i smell a rat, lucifer in a cowgirl hat, if your heart's with me show me the clues,
i've never been so in love or so confused.
I'm in the air now and the moon's on wing and i can't think about anything else but where you have cruised,
i've never been so in love or so confused Now it's down to baggage to collect my case and i hope to see a happy face, standing there in her indian shoes,
i've never been so in love or so confused.
