You're too high to be that low you're too fast to be that slow i was lookin' up and i saw you go
you're to high to be that low You're too young to be that old you're to dear to be that sold i threw in a bid a hunk of gold i threw in a bit a chunk of gold you're too young to be that old Throw down the crutches and walk into the night you'll always be wrong if you never think you're right lying with the dogs rising with the fleas bouncin' off the walls
barkin' at the trees
barkin' at the trees
barkin' at the trees
You're too strong to be that weak, you're too bred to speak that speak i saw you in a bar speakin' nasty things
i saw you in a bar speakin' nasty things
