It's time to wake up
You've been force-fed
They only want what's in your wallet
You can't deny
It makes you sick
To them we're just a demographic
There's no escape before our eyes
Ruining our lives

It's about time
We took control and stopped selling soul
Corporate slime
They'll never care if we all live or die
Crooks and con men
Are scrambling their way to world domination
Fooled again
And keeping us down is how they want to win

They know there are more of us than them
But it's our existence they condemn
The rich stay rich, the poor stay poor
Our misery is what they ignore
How can this last it has to end
Speeding toward full Armageddon
Rise from your knees
Kick down their doors
This time it's war!

Find your answers
Search for truth
We're not all just brain washed youth
Pull the plug
Time is up we've had enough

It's time to wake up
You've been force-fed
They only want what's in your wallet
You can't deny
It makes you sick
To them we're just a demographic
There's no escape before our eyes
Ruining our lives
