You get my daring songs

I call on you, oh Satan

Come back with your psalms

Oh love master

In the substance that never stops

King of phenomenom

King of form

Lives only Satan

At the tremolos lighten

Of his eternal lock

Is the empire

That attracts the ones that turn away

In the presence of yours

Tremble the powerful symbols

Fall down the mitres and crowns

From the cloister comes

Threatening your rebellion
