Well God gave us A big black eye
And the Devil puts a steak on it and says it's alright
They tell us we must choose a side
Well why does the darker one seem so bright?

Well the worlds telling us were doomed
And they don't approve of pointy hats or magic with brooms
Now I've got a question for you,
Well if Gods so fuckin' perfect, Why'd he fuck up on you?

They tell us if we pray that when we die,
We will go to a better place
Well I don't want to do the things I should
'Cause It feels good to be evil
'Cause evil Is good

Will you go to Church on Sunday?
To wash away the shit you did the past six days
Now your on your knees to pray
Well, we pray your stupid God will come and take you away

They tell us If we pray that when we die,
We will go to a better place
Well I don't want to do the things I should
'Cause It feels good to be evil
'Cause evil Is good

Yeah, evil is good!
Yeah, evil is good!
Evil, Evil, Evil
Evil, Evil, Evil
